A CENTENNIAL THANKSGIVING.

Religious Services at 9 a. m., April 30, Here is a simple testimonial, which shows Recommended by the President. WASHINGTON CITY, April 6.-President Harrison issued the following proclamation lite:

A hundred years have passed since the gov-A hundred years, have passed since the government which our for fathers founded was formally organized. At noon on the 3 th day of April, 1789, in the city of New York, and in the presence of an assemblage of the heroic men whose patriotic devotion had led the colonies to victory and independence, George Washington took the oath of office as chief magistrate of the new-born republic. This impressive act of the new-born republic. This impressive act was preceded, at 9 o'clock in the morning, in all the churches of the city, by prayer for God's blessing on the government and its first president. The centennial of this illustrious event in our bistory has been in the apring of the year, and as good in summer, fall and winter as a tonic and blood purifier. in our history has been declared a general holiday by act of congress, to the end that the people of the whole country may join in commemorative exercises appropriate to the day. In order that the joy of the occasion may be associated with a deep thankfulness in the minds of the people for our blessings in the past, and a devout supplication to God for their gra ious continuance in the future, the representatives of the religious creeds, both Christian and Hebrew, have memorialized the government to designate an hour for and thanksgiving on that day.

Now, therefore, I, Benjamin Harrison, president of the United States of America, in response to this pious and reasonable requ ecommend that on Tuesday, April 30, at the hour of 9 o'clock in the morning, the people of the entire country repair to their respective places of divine worship to implore the favor of God that the blessings of liberty, prosperity and pimples on her face and neck, for
